Docket No. CP2013-75

MOTION OF GAMEFLY, INC., FOR LEAVE TO FILE
DOCUMENTS ONE DAY OUT OF TIME
(September 12, 2013)

GameFly, Inc. ("GameFly") respectfully requests leave to file today, one day out of time, its (1) supplemental comments, (2) supplemental declaration of David Hodess, (3) supplemental delegation of Sander Glick, and (4) application for non-public treatment of portions of these filings. GameFly was unable to file the documents by 4:30 pm yesterday because of production difficulties with the creation of pdf copies of certain of the documents.

The delay should not prejudice any party. GameFly served counsel for the Postal Service (Messrs. Daniel J. Foucheaux and John Rosato) by email with redacted copies of the comments and declarations at 5:24 pm yesterday, and with proprietary copies seven minutes later. Counsel for Netflix (Ms. Leong) was served with redacted copies of the filings later the same evening.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "David M. Levy". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "David" and last name "Levy" being clearly legible.
